

A DEONTOLOGY LECTURE FOR ARTSAKH ADVOCATES

17.10.2016 10:50

On the 16-th of November the Chairman of the Chamber of Advocates of the Republic of Armenia Ara Zohrabyan and the headmaster of the School of Advocates of the Republic of Armenia Simon Babayan were on a business trip to Artsakh. Within the frames of cooperation with the Chamber of Advocates of Nagorno-Karabakh Republic they conducted a retraining lecture on the subject of “Deontology and professional status”. About 25 advocates from Artsakh participated in the lecture. The advocates discussed statements connected with the advocate’s behavior code, rules of advocate’s demeanor and the principles of advocacy ethics.

The participants of the lecture asked questions about the relations with constituents, relations between advocates, courts, and questions that referred to the working process with other structures.
